

How Do I Connect My Fitbit To My Fundraising Page?

by Brainchild 16 March, 2018

For all Jimmy's 22 Million Steps participants please note you must record a "workout" with your Fitbit in order for it to contribute to your steps.

Show your supporters how hard you are training by syncing your daily steps through to your fundraising page via Fitbit!

1. Firstly, you will need to be logged into both your Jimmy's 22 Million Steps Account and your Fitbit Account.
2. Make sure your Jimmy's 22 Million Steps account is linked to Fitbit through your account settings;

How to link your accounts:

1. Go to your everydayheros account.

MY STORY

I've created this page because I want to make a difference to the lives of children with brain and spinal cancer. The Brainchild Foundation do terrific work to assist these children and their families. So please help me raise money for them as part of my participation in Jimmy's 22 Million Steps for Kids Brain Cancer. Please help me help them by giving whatever you can using the 'Give Now' button. The more people that know about Brainchild Foundation, the greater their impact, so please also spread the word by sharing my page with your friends and family. Thank you in advance for...
